ARTHUR CAVE IS CAPTURED AT BOONVILLE

Lad Who Craved Career as "Boy Bandit" Placed Under Duress

FORT BRAGG, Jan. 21.—With his thumb half shot off, a big automatic pistol in his pocket, and a Winchester rifle on his back, Arthur Cave's career as a "boy-bandit" was brought to a sudden close by Sheriff Byrnes at Boonville Friday.

Cave fled from here last Wednesday morning in an automobile which he stole from the Union Garage, in an endeavor to evade an expected sentence to a school of correction.

Last Tuesday evening Andrew Andreas, proprietor of the garage, spent considerable time filling up the gasoline tank and otherwise putting a yellow Oldsmobile in condition preparatory for a trip the following morning.

But Wednesday morning the car was gone and the open back door told the story. With the exception of a new Essex which was exposed to the view of Main street by a front window, the switch on every car in the garage was turned on and the keys from a number were missing. This fact indicates that the intruder experienced considerable trouble before he found a car that he could start. A flashlight and 32-caliber automatic revolver were also taken from one of the cars.

Sheriff Byrnes was immediately notified and the "arms of the law" were put in motion.

In the meantime young Cave was having troubles of his own. He was unable to make the steep pitch near Keen's Summit on the Comptche-Wendling road on account of the mud. After a number of unsuccessful attempts he backed the car down and about 100 yards out on an old side road where the trees and brush practically screened it from the view of passers by. He then made his way to Wendling near where he remained in hiding until Friday

VALUABLE DOGS ARE POISONED BY TRAPPER

Two valuable varmint dogs belonging to Earl Ford, and which he had refused several hundred dollars for, were poisoned the latter part of last week, when they ate some poison which had been put out by the government trapper who has been operating on the Doolittle range. While the trapper states that he had put no poison out on Ford's range, nevertheless the dogs got it there and Ford found some of the capsules, which the trapper maintained must have been carried there by birds or some animal.

And it is likely that the trapper's days in the public service are numbered.

SANDELIN PURCHASES OLD MILLER STABLE PROPERTY

Frank Sandelin this week bought the Old Miller stable property next the Palace Hotel, which was owned by the First National Bank. The price is said to have been in the neighborhood of $10,000.

He will tear down the stable building, which for years has pushed his insurance rate to the skies, and will improve a portion of the property with a new building and sell the remainder.

COX HARDWARE COMPANY MAKES LIBERAL OFFER

The housewives of Ukiah and of the rural sections which have their trading center will be interested in the offer made by the Cox Hardware Company in their ad on the last page of the Dispatch-Democrat.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ARE NOW UNDER CONTROL

Both the city and county health authorities are united in stating that the several contagious diseases which have threatened the welfare of the community for several weeks are now under control.

Only one case of smallpox has developed the past week and is under strict quarantine.

One local case of scarlet fever has developed and is under quarantine, although it is reported that the Mill Creek school near Talmage was closed this week on account of several new cases among the pupils of that district.

The measles epidemic is on the wane, there being put a few new cases this week.

The situation is considered so well in hand that the school authorities have decided to reopen the grammar school next Monday.

MANY INTERESTS OPPOSE PROPOSED NEW COMPANY

The hearing in the matter of granting Messrs. Caylor and Thomas of Point Arena permission to operate an auto stage line between Fort Bragg and Sausalito came up before the Railroad Commission at San Rafael Saturday.

The gentlemen allege that the present service is inadequate as a ground for their permit.

Pete Peterson of Albion, Allen & Doxsee of Fort Bragg, Ledford Bros. of Boonville and representatives of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad were present to contradict their assertion.

The general supposition is that the Point Arena men want to get started now so as to be in on the ground floor when the coast highway lateral is built.

In this connection it might be interesting to note that reports from Wendling are to the effect that satisfactory progress is being made on hte survey of the highway down the Navarro river.

MR. AND MRS. ROY BROSSER LOSE INFANT DAUGHTER

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Blosser passed away at Oakland last Friday, the cause of her death being a throat affection. An autopsy disclosed that pus had formed in some of the glands of the throat, poisoning the system.

The many friends of the parents in this county will extend condolences to them in their bereavement.

Leslie Allenby, one of the efficient post office employees of the local post office, returned Wednesday from a week end trip to San Francisco and the bay cities.

J. G. Youngs Sells Ranch on Orr Creek

J. G. Youngs, erstwhile proprietor of the Log Cabin ranch, located on the headwaters of Orr Creek, this week sold the place to San Francisco parties, who will take possession at once. With the ranch go several hundred head of goats, half a dozen hogs, a team and several head of cattle. The price is said to have been in the neighborhood of $4000.

Fishermen's Assn. Enlarges Plant

FORT BRAGG, Jan. 21.—Work was started this week by the Noyo Fishermen's Association to enlarge their plant at Noyo by adding cold storage quarters and a cannery.

A crew of a dozen men are now engaged in excavating for the cold storage room which is to be 70 feet long and 24 feet wide. It will have a capacity of 433 casks, or 14 car loads, of salmon.

Teamsters for the last few days have been busy hauling piling which will shortly be driven to support the necessary addition to the cannery.

The cannery machinery has been purchased and is expected to arrive shortly for installation.

MANY AGREEABLE SURPRISES AWAIT THOSE WHO ATTEND AMERICAN LEGION PLAYLET

New Scenery Constructed Which, Along With Novel Lighting, Will Lend New Life to Stage

A program of absorbing interest and delightful contrasts, containing the rare professional touch, and free from the cheap melodrama that sometimes characterizes amateur productions, is scheduled to go over the footlights at the Victory Theatre on the nights of February 2 and 3, when a carefully selected and trained cast will make their bow to what is predicted to be a record breaking attendance.

When the curtain rises on Monday evening the audience will be agreeably surprised at the novel effects in stage setting and lighting that have been planned and carried out by stage manager Craddock and stage electrician Beckley. Lighting and stage setting, those two things which are sometimes so lightly considered by those who produce an amateur play, are being given very careful attention by Coach Pollock, who promises to show everything that is new and novel in this line.

Mrs. Emile Waldteufel and Miss Leila Hansen give promise of a rare treat in the rendering of their parts in the two act curtain raiser, which is an absorbing little playlet of great interest. "The Prince Chap" which will be the headliner of the evening is a delightful production in three acts. Mr. Ellis Pollock will essay the leading role in this production. As his ward little Miss Virginia Barker plays her part without artificiality, and appears as in real life.

Miss Jewel Martin, who is little Miss Barker "grown up" is developing her difficult part, that of a sweet miss just ripening into womanhood in a natural and sympathetic way which is sure to be pleasing to the audience. Mr. Fred Church will furnish the humor of the evening in his role of an old and trusted English butler. Mr. Neil Anker will appear at his best as a colorful young English artist. Mrs. Hugh Preston will appear as a proud young lady of distinction and later in the same character in the role of an attractive young widow. An artistic interpretation may be expected from Mrs. Preston whose appearance and personality fit delightfully into her part.

The vaudeville skit in which Ray Walker and Volney Van Dyke appear will relieve the tension which accrues with the heavy drama and will furnish many laughs throughout the evening.

The play in the ensemble is brimful of sweet sentiment and it is the earnest endeavor of the coach to bring out its natural expression and to eliminate any possibility of making it tawdry or ridiculous.

NORMAL REPRESENTATIVE TO INSPECT SCHOOLS OF COUNTY

Miss Cassa B. Graves, normal field superintendent of the Humboldt State Normal, will come to Ukiah on February 2, and will remain here for two or three weeks, according to word received by Superintendent of Schools, Roy Good this week. Miss Graves is at the present time in Sonoma County visiting the rural schools and aiding the teachers in the preparation of programs and other details in the curriculum. She will visit most of the schools of this county and will lend whatever aid is possible, answering questions and solving the problems which the teacher has to meet.

Frank Roberts came up from Oakland this week and will enter the employ of the Standard Oil Co. Frank says he is glad to be home again.

DUTTON HOLDS UP LARGE SHIPMENTS FAULTY TREES

County Horticultural Commissioner Edgar Dutton got in his deadly work this week and has held up tree shipments into this county aggregating about 2500 trees from outside nurseries.

There was 1850 trees in one shipment stopped here, and 150 in another which was stopped by Mr. Dutton's deputy at Fort Bragg. Another shipment to Hopland was held up on account of the trees being frozen.

The diseases on account of which the other shipments were held embrace root knot, hairy knot, crown gall and other defects.

ILLNESS OF BERNARD MOORE CALLS PARENTS TO CHICO

News of the serious illness of Bernard D. Moore, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Moore, of this city, summoned Mr. and Mrs. Moore to Chico last Wednesday.

BIDS ASKED ON CLEARING OF GRAVELLY VALLEY

Tucked away modestly among the legal advertisements on page three of the Dispatch-Democrat this week is a little notice to bidders that may hold the possibility of a good proposition for some Mendocino county man who is experienced in handling logging and similar contracts. The notice is connected with the clearing of the dam site at Gravelly Valley, several acres in extent, and embracing much heavy brush and some big timber. The job is a man's sized one. The Snow Mountain Water & Power Co. would like to see the contract go to some Mendocino county individual or firm and for this reason is advertising it locally. City firms there will be in plenty to bid. Surely there is some Mendocino county concern with the capital and experience necessary to swing this deal.

He sends regards to all his friends.

Accused Burglar Taken From Train

FORT BRAGG, Jan. 20.—Bert Wells, who had been hereabouts for a week or so, was taken off of the train at Ukiah Friday on instructions of Marshal Johnson.

Wells is charged with entering the room of Alex Tiktal at the local mill rooming house and appropriating a 38-caliber revolver, scabbard and belt, Friday morning prior to leaving on the train.

Unfortunately for him, his looks classed him as a "hard case" and Marshal Johnson took particular note of him. The theft was discovered the same morning about 11 o'clock, and a phone message accomplished the above results.

Wells is 19 years old.

REVENUE MAN GRABS BOOZE AT WENDLING

Rich Haul Made by Geo. W. Salisbury when Big Truck Stalls on Grade.

FORT BRAGG, Jan. 21.—Twelve barrels of wine consigned to Fort Bragg parties for delivery prior to midnight, January 15, were seized at Wendling Saturday night by Geo. W. Salisbury, Deputy Collector of United States Revenue. The wine was on a truck which got stalled on the mountain roads while on its way here Thursday. The truck, of 5-ton capacity, left Sonoma County Thursday morning with a load of wine which had been purchased by Fort Bragg parties prior to July 1, 1919.

On account of the big truck having a wheel base six inches wider than the ordinary vehicle, it was unable to negotiate the mountain roads this side of Wendling.

An attempt was first made to have a special train run out from Albion to haul the truck and its load to the coast but the railroad officials did not care to take any chances on account of the lateness of the hour.

In response to a phone message two trucks went out from here and brought in part of the cargo, arriving just in the nick of time.

When Mr. Salisbury reached the scene late Saturday night he found the driver asleep in the truck. The wine was immediately removed and placed under seal.

According to the new law the Government has the power to seize the truck upon which the wine was being moved. The number has been taken and the case reported to headquarters.

The twelve barrels of wine confiscated contained 50 gallons each, bringing the total up to 600 gallons.

A few years ago this grade of wine sold for 30 or 40 cents a gallon. During the last few months, prior to January 16, rumor has it that it exchanged hands "in the dark" at $5 per gallon.

GREENWOOD ITEMS

(Mendocino Beacon.)

ELK, January 8.—The mill resumed operations Tuesday morning after a two weeks' shut-down. The logging camps had begun work a week earlier as had also the grading camps along Greenwood Creek, where a large force is now employed in grading and laying track, under the direction of Maloney, one of the best known construction men on the coast. This crew is being added to daily.

In addition to the increase in the number of men employed on Greenwood Creek, a new section camp has been established on the Elk Creek line with E. Youngstrom as foreman. So you see it looks as though we were to have a busy and prosperous year here.

After having been closed for about three months, the Greenwood Creamery resumed operations Monday morning with James Heron, who managed the affairs of the company so successfully last year, again in charge. The promoters look for a far better year than they had during the past season, as they feel that last season was viewed largely as an experiment and many of the ranchers had to be shown. They believe that the past season has convinced the "Missourians" that a co-operative creamery can be made a successful and paying concern and that they cannot help realizing that the greater the number of customers, the greater will be the margin of profit. Another thing which has to be considered is the fact that last year a considerable amount of new machinery was installed which, of course, had to come from the profits of the concern, and yet it paid handsomely. With the equipment all installed and paid for, it certainly looks very bright for those who will have an opportunity of sharing in the profits this year.

EDITOR DISPATCH:

Statistics show teachers are 100 per cent better off than other workers. They average 1000 hours per annum against 2400 per annum in other occupations compared by "famed educator" in your issue of January 9. They pay no income tax. Last year every teacher in this county got a month's pay while schools were closed on account of the "flu." Another teacher went to the "merry-go-round" bumped her knee, laid off four days; No. 2 was off 8 days with measles; No. 3 spent 3 weeks in a hospital undergoing operation for appedicitis. They all got their full pay. Would they get it in any other service with which they are compared?

And, young ladies, you do not have to treat the boss better than any other man, in order to hold your job, which is too often the case elsewhere.

Time and energy spent scheming how to force the public to accept you at your own valuations is responsible for much of the trouble with our schools. I suggest that teachers and superintendents spend this time and energy giving more and better school work. Also that you denounce the free "text book" system, except for those unable to purchase them. Act on these two suggestions and you will sure find a just and generous bunch of taxpayers in Mendocino county.

If you want your pictures in the "hall of fame" say to Will C. Wood, "no good American would ask a minimum wage for any one class of workers without asking same for all workers". I have no hesitancy in stating that if Mr. Wood takes a class bill of that sort before the legislature, a good American assembly would kick him out "ipsi facto".

ANDERSON VALLEY

ANDERSON VALLEY, Jan. 20—The dance given at the high school, by the Anderson Valley Chamber of Commerce on Saturday evening was a great success. A large crowd was in attedance.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Wade and Mr. Gleeson. Mr. Flynn was also there from Cloverdale and helped with the music for awhile.

A dainty lunch was served at midnight and everyone was loud in their praises of this part of the program. The crowded condition of the room where the dance was conducted, more than ever, drove home the conviction to the minds of the people the necessity of a hall in Anderson Valley regardless of where it is situated.

Mrs. Mitchell and two daughters and Miss Ethel Babcock left on Saturday for San Francisco where they will reside.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Anslie Skinner and bride Miss Velda Tennel, who were married at Fort Bragg last week. Mr. and Mrs. Skinner will make their home at Navarro.

Miss Irene Clay, teacher of the Anderson school has returned from her trip to the bay cities.

Mrs. B. Van Zandt is spending a well earned vacation in San Francisco.

A dance is to be given at the high school on Saturday evening and a good time is looked forward to. It is given by the Anderson Valley Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Babcock are to be congratulated on the birth of a son last Tuesday.

The new arrival weighed 11 lbs. and mother and babe are both doing fine. Dr. Van Allen of Ukiah was the attending physician and Mrs. Henry Tarwater head nurse.

Social and Club Activities

National Thrift Week is on!

From January 17 to January 24, has been named officially as National Thrift Week, with observances throughout the country.

The United States Government has requested Thrift Week recognition by all organizations. The Government has especially requested the co-operation of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, with its membership enrollment of two million federated women.

Ten thrift commandments for the observance of National Thrift Week, prepared by Miss Georgie A. Bacon, director of the club women's participation, include the following:

Work and earn.
Make a budget.
Keep a record of expenditures.
Have a bank account.
Carry life insurance.
Make a will.
Own your own home.
Pay your bills promptly.
Invest in Government securities.
Share with others.

In appealing to the club women of America in observance of National Thrift Week, Miss Georgie Bacon has laid special emphasis on thrift in the home.

The admonition "He who eats must work" is included in Miss Bacon's decalogue for the club women as part of the personal conscription to the industrial field, which she states "is a sacred duty" and which should be felt as such.

While Ukiah is not the home of many of the newly rich who are going mad over spending recently-acquired money on fur coats, diamond necklaces, etc., still there are a large number of people who by buying unessentials are keeping up the prices of the necessities of life. The world is short on production and the only remedy for our present troubles is for all to consume less, especially of manufactured articles, and give production a chance to overtake consumption. Then and then only will prices come down. Let all do their part by refraining from unnecessary expenditures till times are normal again.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB HOLDS NOTABLE MEETING

The Saturday Afternoon Club held a most delightful meeting last Saturday when Mrs. George Anderson and Mrs. J. L. McCracken were hostesses at the former's charming home. The meeting opened promptly at two o'clock and several essential matters of business were disposed of. Important among these was the appointment of committees, which jointly with similar committees from the Kosmos Club, will take up the preparations for receiving the annual Federation meeting of the clubs of San Francisco District in April.

The program for the afternoon was of marked excellence. Miss Catherine Thomas sang "If Thou Wert Blind" by Noel Johnson and graciously responded to an encore with Metcalf's "The Cares of Yesterday."

Mrs. Jocie Jamison read a paper entitled "Club Notes," briefly calling attention to some of the more interesting and important events now transpiring in the world of women's clubs. Mrs. Louis Hildreth most entertainingly reviewed Eleanor Porter's clever book "Oh, Money, Money!", reading some of the humorous bits and parts of its quaint philosophy.

Refreshments were served at a large round table and a number of smaller ones, all charming in red carnations and red-shaded candles, while big bowls of huckleberry foliage glowed richly in all the rooms. The menu consisted of delicious salad, hot biscuits and coffee daintily served. Very pleasant guests of the afternoon were Mrs. W. C. McNary, a former member, Mrs. J. L. Davis, and Mrs. Paul Clary, who is a newcomer in Ukiah from Santa Rosa, and Mrs. Place of San Francisco. Mrs. Toles, a much-valued honorary member was present.

CULTUS CLUB MEETING

The Cultus Club had one of the most delightful meetings of the year on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edgar Dutton. The program consisted of J. M. Barrie's popular comedy, "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals," the characters being impersonated by Mesdames Joseph, Preston, Dutton and Austin and Misses Hughes and Pettis. The costumes and character readings were so clever and amusing that the audience was kept in a gale of laughter throughout the play.

Miss Winifred Hughes sang very sweetly "One Fleeting Hour" and as an encore, gave "Keep on Hopin'."

Not the least pleasant hour of an unusually delightful evening was that spent enjoying the delicious refreshments served by the hostess at small tables, each bearing a pretty centerpiece of carnations. Fruit salad, hot biscuits, olives, candies and chocolate constituted the tempting viands so daintily served.

NEIL SMITH OF SALT LAKE COMPLIMENTED

Miss Helen Dewey entertained very charmingly at five hundred last Friday evening in honor of her cousin, Neil Smith, of Salt Lake City. Five tables of cards were played, Miss Mary Stipp being the fortunate winner of the ladies' prize and Neil Smith carrying off the gentlemen's prize. Daffodils and ferns formed the beautiful table decorations. Delicious refreshments were served at the card tables. Those who enjoyed this pleasant evening were Misses Elsie and Mary Stipp, Stella and Lempi Sandelin, Vivian Green, Lurline Jamison, Gertrude Connolly, Joy Beck, Helen Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis; Messrs. Neil Smith, Newell Rea, Geo. Boring, Marcus Gilmore, Pierce Stipp, William Chessall, Raymond Milne, Jay Beck and Leslie Allenby.

KOSMOS CLUB MEETING POSTPONED

The Kosmos Club will hold its meeting on Saturday afternoon this week instead of Thursday, their regular meeting day. This change is made in deference to the evangelistic services being conducted through the week. The spirit of the club in not wishing to do anything that would detract from the attendance at the meetings is most commendable. The matinee which constitutes the program for the meeting Saturday at Mrs. Jocie Jamison's promises to be a delightful affair.

WILLITS NEWS OF PAST WEEK

WILLITS, Jan. 20—The long dry spell we are now having is alarming our ranchers and stockmen. At this date, January 20th, we have only had 11.67 inches of rain for the season, most of which fell in December. It came so late that the feed in the hills did not get a start for it was followed by cold, freezing weather. In a few favored spots the new feed is large enough to be seen, but most of the mountain spots are brown and bare. We are told the stock are holding up very well, considering the weather, but they could not now stand a cold, wet spell. Reports from all over the northern part of the county tell the same story, and in some places quite a number of range cattle have already died.

Willits Post, No. 174, American Legion, has been organized with the following officers: Prof. E. H. Burns, president; W. I. Baily, vice-president M. Shimonowsky, 2nd vice-president; Gus Wallach, secretary-treasurer. A special meeting will be held at the auditorium next Saturday night at which the State secretary-treasurer, Fred Bebergall, will be the principal speaker. At present the jurisdiction of the Willits Post includes the whole of the 3rd supervisorial district, but an effort will be made to establish posts at both Covelo and Laytonville.

The postmaster at Cummings has resigned his position and a civil examination has been called at Willits, on January 24th, to fill the position. Any person wishing further information can obtain same at any of the third class postoffices in the county.

Louis Muir, who has been in Siberia with the U. S. army for the past year, has returned to California and is still at the Presidio.

Harry Moncrieff returned last week from Washington where he is now employed. He works for a fish oil and fertilizer works and spent the summer in Alaska.

The firm of Cooper & Cravier, Dos Rios, has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Cooper has bought out his partner. The firm conducts a general merchandise business.

Several large real estate deals are now pending, mention of which cannot be made until the papers are passed on by the abstract people. It is all ranch property.

Saturday night the boys of the Ukiah high school and the boys of the local high school played basket ball. Quite a large delegation came up from Ukiah to root for their team. The Ukiah team won by a score of 27 to 13.

A son was born to the wife of Fred Page, January 13th; and a daughter to Mrs. Ledger, of Irmulco, January 18th.

A. J. Fairbanks has been awarded a big road contract in Sonoma county, near the town of Sonoma, by the county of Sonoma. He is now there looking over the ground.

COAST NEWS NOTES

(Beacon.)

Dr. Preston announces the arrival of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Valadao of Mendocino, on Thursday, January 15th. Mother and child are reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. Amelia Gorrell, well known at Mendocino, where she lived up to a few years ago, died Thursday at Orcutt, Santa Barbara county, where she moved several years ago with her sons who are employed in the oil industry there. A telegram announcing her sudden demise came to her daughter, Mrs. Martha Richmond, at this place Friday.

About 10 o'clock Wednesday morning Westport was thrown into excitement by the alarm of fire. The home of George Mathews proved to be the place and smoke was issuing from the roof of that dwelling in large volumes. The fire started in the attic and is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue. As soon as the alarm was given men rushed to the scene, but it was soon discovered that the fire had gained such headway that the building was doomed, and the only thing was to save as much of the furniture as possible. Mr. Mathews was away at work but his wife and children were home. A woodshed was torn down and the fire prevented from destroying the barn. Had the day proved a windy one, the fire would have been a most disastrous one as the town is poorly equipped for combating fire.

WILLITS POST TO SUPPORT UKIAH COMRADES

Willits Post of the American Legion, 150 strong will journey to Ukiah to witness the dramatic evening which their comrades here are planning for February 2 and 3. So sayeth Irving Bailey, first Vice President of the Willits post and manager of publicity.

"We believe in reciprocity", said Bailey, who was in Ukiah last Sunday. "And we plan to stage some sort of benefit performance ourselves, during the spring, so the boys are all for coming to Ukiah when you give your play."

And Bailey is right. Any jealously that may be extant between Ukiah and Willits should be and will be forgotten in furthering the aims of the American Legion.

REDWOOD VALLEY

REDWOOD VALLEY, Jan. 21.—The Finnish Colony has several teams busy hauling in wood to the charcoal kilns.

The valley farmers are taking advantage of the fine January weather to finish plowing and planting.

Frank Laughlin is spending a short time on his sheep ranch here.

Russel Tolman and family, Mrs M. J. Tindall and Mrs. J. M. Woolley are quarantined in Ukiah. The doctors decided Russel had scarlet fever and Norman the measles.

The measles are quite prevalent in the valley and Calpella. Mrs. Steding, little Clarence Steding and Mr. and Mrs. Faas' baby are among the stricken ones in the valley. In Calpella it is reported that measles are prevalent in the Copsey, Thurow and Tremolini families. The Occidental school has been closed on account of the epidemic.

The Finnish Colony is planting an additional five acres of hops.

The Improvement Club is planning to fittingly celebrate its ninth birthday with a party Saturday night, Jan. 24th. A short program will be rendered and refreshments served. All are cordially invited.

Announcement

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Judge of the Superior Court of this county. I was born in San Francisco in 1874, and for the past 29 years have resided in Ukiah. During ten years of that period I served as law clerk for T. L. Carothers, and as court reporter for Judge McGarvey and Judge Mannon, and for the last 19 years have been actively engaged in the practice of my profession.

In politics I always have been and still am a Republican, and as the candidate of that party was elected to the Legislature for three terms, and as a member of that body was the author of a number of important measures, among them: The Direct Primary Amendment that gave California a Direct Primary Law; the amendment that forbade a change in schools books oftener than once in four years and thus affected a saving to parents of school children; and the law that gave to counties and municipalities the initiative, referendum and recall. I was also the sponsor of a resolution to investigate graft in the State Printing Office that resulted in the resignation of the State Printer, and was selected as Chairman of a Committee to investigate impeachment proceedings against the Judges of theAppellate Court. In 1911 the new tax law was placed in my charge as Chairman of the Revenue and Taxation Committee, and many changes were made that resulted in advantage to the tax-payers of the state.

My experience in the various activities in which I have been engaged, I submit, qualify me to fill the office to which I aspire, and I had hoped to submit my candidacy to the voters, and to let the contest be decided on merit alone, and to this end invite legitimate opposition. It is fast becoming apparent however that the opposition to me is to come from a coterie of political manipulators in Ukiah, who will resort to any means to accomplish my defeat, because they see in my election a danger to their hold on the county's affairs.

I believe it to be a part of the duty of the Judge to use his influence and prestige to the end that the business of the county be conducted honestly, efficiently, economically and free from waste or extravagance, and believe also that the Judge can do much to reduce our rapidly increasing tax rate. The same interests that are opposing my candidacy are responsible for the inefficiency and extravagance, where it exists, in this county, and the resulting high tax rate.

To lay the situation before the voters, a campaign of publicity is necessary, and it is therefore my intention to address the citizens of every precinct and to supplement this with a series of bulletins. In speech and writing, I shall calmly and dispassionately lay the facts before the people. I will point out the identity of those who control the county affairs, the effect of this control on the tax rate, how my election would disrupt the political ring and bring about a reduction in taxes. I will show that the control of the ring is in one man who arrogates to himself the right to select candidates for office who in turn are beholden to him, if selected. This man has been able to maintain his prestige by a course of conduct that would shock the conscience of every upright citizen. I will point out how the church on one hand and the redlight and liquor interests on the other hand have been used to the same end by this man, how his friends and associates have been discarded when they could no longer serve him, and how now he is exerting himself to the utmost to defeat me because of his knowledge that if elected I will not be subservient to his wishes, but will act in the interest of the people alone. The campaign will be shown to be one between good government lower taxes, and equal justice to all, on the one hand, as against the Ukiah political ring, higher taxes and favoritism to those on the inside, on the other hand.

Bulletins are in preparation and will be issued after the Presidential Primary election. These bulletins will deal with various matters suggested by their titles as follows:

The Ukiah ring, who composes it, and who is its head.

Buying political prestige with wildcat mining stock.

Can the vote of any church be delivered to the ring?

The one particular county office the ring must control.

Trading a $30,000 law practice for a $4,000 office and why.

The work of the 1915 Grand Jury, what it accomplished, wherein it failed, and why.

Increasing county officers' salaries after election.

Lip patriots and others.

A shain of banks as a political asset.

How the Superior Judge can reduce taxes.

Shall lawyers be pensioned to the Superior bench?

A new law firm in 1921 and its effect on the Court House.

What my defeat will cost the tax payers.

INCOME TAX LESSONS

A Practical Study of the Law for the Average Taxpayer

By R. L. DURHAM, Former Deputy Collector, Internal Revenue.

(Questions of Taxpayers will be answered in these columns. Address inquiries to Income Tax Editor, care this paper. To receive attention all communications must state clearly and briefly the point upon which information is desired and must bear the name and address of the writer. The identity of the inquirer will not be revealed in the answers. Extended computations cannot be made in these columns but any question concerning the law will be fully answered.)

LESSON 4

TAXABLE INCOME—Block B

This Block covers income received as compensation for personal services as well as from other similar sources. Personal services include income from per diem allowances, salaries, commissions, bonuses and special payments or gifts to employees, and amounts allowed for living quarters, and all other income for services rendered. In general any compensation, in no matter what form, paid for personal services, is taxable here to the extent of the fair market value of the thing taken in payment. Where payment is made in something else than cash, the question of fair market value may arise. This must be determined by the taxpayer himself in the light of all the circumstances.

Where no determination of compensation is had until the completion of the services, the amount finally received is income for the year in which it is determined. Tips, retired pay of federal or other officers, and pensions are income; also marriage fees, baptismal offerings and all other fees and gifts and contributions received by clergymen for services rendered are taxable. Bonuses paid employees in stock of a corporation are taxable as if the corporation had sold the stock for its market value and paid the employees in cash.

In column 4 of Block B may be deducted any offsets against such income. For instance; should an employee return in column 3 for taxation his total allowance for traveling expenses, he could deduct in column 4 the amounts actually paid out by him for such purpose.

INCOME FROM PARTNERSHIPS
Block C

Partnerships are not subject to tax but they are required to make returns of income on form 1065. This form so nearly corresponds with form 1040 that many of the instructions here given will be applicable to the income from partnerships. In fact the Regulations provide that the income of a partnership shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as the net income of an individual, except that deductions for contributions or gifts are not permitted. The purpose of a partnership return is to arrive at the taxable income of the individual members of the partnership. The distributive share of each partner is taxable and must be returned by him upon his own individual return, whether such partnership income is actually distributed to him or not. Therefore, it is very necessary that a member of a partnership ascertain his exact distributive share of the net profits of that partnership. A place is provided upon Page 1 of the form 1040 under line 114 where this partnersip income may be entered in full detail, from which line it is transferred to Block C, Page 2.

Income from estates and trusts coming to an individual are treated in the same general way on this form as are incomes from partnerships. Form 1065 contains many instructions for preparing a partnership return, but as we are dealing here specifically with form 1040, it is not the proper place to consider it.

PERSONAL SERVICE CORPORATIONS

The above instructions concerning income from partnerships apply equally to income from "Personal Service Corporations." It is entered in Block C and also on Line 14 as given above. The question to be determined is, what is a Personal Service Corporation? The law defines a personal service corporation as a corporation "who's income is to be ascribed primarily to the activities of the principal owners or stockholders who are themselves regularly engaged in the active conduct of the affairs of a corporation and in which capital (whether invested or forrowed) is not a material income producing factor; but does not include any corporation, fifty percentum or more of whose pross income is derived from trading as a principal."

This broad definition is susceptible to so many interpretations that the Commissioner has held that: "No definite and conclusive tests can be precribed by which it can be finally determined in advance of an examination of a corporation return whether or not it is a personal service corporation." He lays down so many "general principles" and so many conditions for determining exemption as a personal service corporation that the lay mind is confused and bewildered. In fact, as the law and regulations stand at present, it is exceedingly difficult for any corporation to qualify as a personal service corporation. The changes in the law recommended by the Treasury Department, if adopted, will simplify this question and give relief to a great many businesses which, while strictly corporate in form, are clearly a personal business. It is not here advised that a corporation claim exemption as a personal service corporation without submitting an affidavit setting forth in full the information requested in the regulations.

PROFIT FROM SALES

Block D provides for profits from sales of lands, buildings, stocks bonds and other property. This block covers a wide range of operations and should be given careful study. Sales of these forms of property are made at both a profit and a loss and it is vital that the full data asked for be given in order that the taxpayer may return only his true profit and may claim all loss actually sustained. The basis for determining the gain derived or loss sustained from the sale or other disposition of real, personal, or mixed property is: (1) In the case of property acquired before March 1, 1913, (the beginning of the income tax law) the fair market price or value of such property as of that date. (2) In the case of property acquired on or after that date the cost or inventory value of the same. Column 5 of Block D provides for the entry of either of these two values as the case may be. The amount entered here plus the cost of subsequent permanent improvements, as given in column 6, and less all depreciation charged off since the property was acquired as given in column 7, will give the true net cost of the property. This, deducted from the sales price in column 4, will leave the true profit or loss from the sale. If the total is a loss, enter in red ink and subtract from the amount of taxable income arrived at in the preceding blocks. If it is a profit, add it in.

Through incomplete records or faulty accounting systems taxpayers frequently find difficulty in arriving at their true original cost of a given property. However, until that value is established the taxpayer cannot report his true loss or profit on the sale.

PROFITS FROM SALES OF STOCK
Article 6

Those taxpayers who deal extensively in stocks and bonds are confronted here with a great difficulty. When shares of stock in corporations are sold from lots purchased at different prices and the identity of the lots cannot be determined, the Regulations provide that the stock sold shall be charged against the earliest purchase price of such stock. For instance, if a taxpayer purchased a given stock at 101 in January and at varying prices through the year up to 110 and sold one-half of his holdings in December at 112, he would be required to report the entire lot sold at a cost price of 101 unless he had kept a careful inventory of all stocks purchased so that he could check the stock sold back against its identical purchase price. Many taxpayers are thus required to pay a larger tax as a penalty for failure to carefully preserve the identity of their stocks.

STOCK DIVIDENDS

Stock dividends as income and the taxability of profits received from the sale of same is too complicated a problem to be dealt with generally. A taxpayer having such income to account for should give very careful consideration to Article 39 and Article 1547 of Regulations 45. No brief treatment of the subject would be of value to the average taxpayer.

INCOME FROM RENTS AND ROYALTIES

Block E provides for income from rents and royalties. A large body of taxpayers are concerned with income from rentals of both business and residence property. The amount of rent received to be entered in column 3 is not ordinarily difficult to arrive at but the taxpayer who fails to take advantage of the offsets against this income to be entered in the remaining columns of this schedule works an injury upon himself. Not all gross rent is income. Repairs necessary to keep business property in rentable condition, mortgage interest paid, taxes and many other incidental expenses are legitmate offsets against rent received and should be carefully entered in the column provided in this block.

INCOME FROM INSTALMENT SALES

Instalment sales coves a wide range of transactions and are made under varying conditions as to passing of title. It is, therefore, difficult to briefly cover all classes of transactions. In instalment sales of personal property, whether or not title remains in the seller until the property is fully paid for, the income to be returned by the purchaser in any year will be that proportion of each instalment payment which the gross profit to be realized when the property is fully paid for bears to the gross contract price. The rule is a fair one in that it requires the tax to be paid only upon that portion of his profit which has actually been collected. If a proper system of accounting is maintained, firms selling goods on the instalment plan should not have great difficulty in arriving at the proportion of collections from instalment sales which is properly taxable under the above ruling.

Upon instalment sales of real-estate the principle is the same but varies somewhat in its application. The profit from the sale of lots in a sub-division to be returned as income for the year in which sale was made is that proportion of each payment actually received in that year which the gross profit to be realized when the propery is paid for bears to the gross contract price. It is contemplated that the sale of each lot or parcel will be treated as a separate transaction and the gain or loss accounted for accordingly.

If the purchaser defaults in his payment and the contract lapses, the adjustments to be made by the taxpayer must depend entirely upon the conditions under which the sale was made. If the seller repossesses the property and the purchaser forfeits all payments made, the entire amount received on instalment payments, less the profit already returned for taxation, will be income to the seller for the year in which the property was repossessed. If the seller had previously returned through error or otherwise his entire profit from the whole transaction, he would have a deductible loss of the excess of the amount previously reported as income over the amount actually received. When real or personal property sold on the instalment plan is repossessed through default, the property must be restored to capital account and included in inventory at its original cost.

CAL. TELEPHONE & LIGHT CO. WANT HIGHER RATES

The California Telephone and Light Company have applied to the Railroad Commission for authority to increase its former rates for telephone service in the counties of Mendocino, Sonoma, Lake and Napa counties, as shown by the schedules on file with the Commission, to the rates it put into effect under authority of Postmaster General Burleson during the period of Government control. The company claims that the Burleson rates do no more than yield a fair return on the investment.

UKIAH TRIUMPHS EASILY OVER WILLITS GOALERS

The basket ball team representing the local high school journeyed to Willits last Saturday evening and took the Willits team into camp by a score of 27-13. It was a good game, taking everything into consideration, especially since Ukiah took the long end of the score. There was a peppy bunch of rooters pulling for both teams, a circumstance which supplied the jazz that the teams lacked. The Willits team was especially light, and couldn't stand the pace set by the local huskies. A great many fouls were called on the local boys, but the Willits boys didn't have much of an eye for shooting free goals so the results were not especially disastrous.

The girls' game which was scheduled to have been played was called off at the last moment and the preliminary contest was waged between two picked teams from the grammar and high schools.

As far as can be ascertained this is the last game that the local boys will play this year, as their inability to secure the hall has altogether quashed any desire they might have had for a basket ball program of long duration. As soon as the weather settles definitely practice for the track season will commence, and the boys are confident that a winning team in this line of athletic endeavor will be put forth.

NEW CASES IN SUPERIOR COURT

The Savings Bank of Mendocino County has filed a suit against Ben Berri and others seeking to collect a balance due on a promissory note, dated at Point Arena, Jan 25, 1915 and bearing interest at 7 per cent per annum. The note originally was drawn in favor of G. H. Edwards and came to the bank by assignment. The original amount was $1600, which has been reduced to $486.12 by reason of various payments. The plaintiff also asks for $100 attorney's fees. Mannon & Mannon appear for the bank.

A complaint in divorce has been filed by George W. Campbell against Jennie Campbell, through J. W. Kingren attorney.

Through Weldon & Wessels, Clara York has filed a suit in divorce against John H. York. The complaint alleges that the parties were married in Willits, July 6, 1919, and that the marriage was consumated at the instance of the girl's father and mother-in-law, who used undue influence in prevailing on the couple to marry. The plaintiff alleges that both she and her husband were averse to marrying and that as soon as they learned that their rights had been infringed and that they had recourse at law, they separated and have since continued to live apart. The plaintiff prays the return of her maiden name of Clara Lawler.

Through Atorney Robert Duncan, Phil Lobree has filed suit against F. C. Drew, et al, to recover the sum of $7150 alleged to be due as the relinquishment fee on some timber claims turned over to the L. E. White Lumber Co. at Alder Creek. The new action takes the place of a suit filed some time ago by the same party which was dismissed because of a technicality appearing during the proceedings.

Frank W. Laughlin et al, have filed suit against J. S. Murray, et al, to cause the defendants to set forth whatever title they may have to the Laughlin ranch, situated near Calpella, to which the plaintiffs allege they have had right and title, and paid taxes upon for the past twenty years. Plaintiffs pray that the defendants be debarred from asserting any claim in the future, and for costs of suit, along with any other relief that the court may see fit to allow. The suit is a formal proceeding to quiet title.

Through Attorneys Mannon & Mannon, George B. Bever, the brother, has filed a petition for letters of administration in the estate of Samuel Bever, deceased, the estate consisting of real and personal property valued at $1300.

Through Attorneys Peirsol and Stone, Mathew H. Stewart has filed petition for letters of administration of the estate of Deborah Stewart, deceased, said estate being valued at approximately $2100. A petition in the same matter was filed last week by Mrs. Fraser, a sister of deceased.

BOY BANDIT

morning. During this time it is believed that he broke into a cabin and secured the rifle which he had when arrested.

Friday forenoon the stage driver passed him on the road as he was hiking towards Cloverdale. Word was then phoned Byrnes who was in waiting at Cloverdale and he immediately started towards Cave in a car.

Cave accidentally shot himself in the thumb while trying to work the automatic pistol. He offered no resistance when arrested.

When found the stolen car was minus its spark plugs, tools, jack, a brand new pair of chains and the block in the distributor.

Cave's ability as a check forger also came to light this week when it was found that two checks on a local bank which he recently cashed at the Ten Mile store were worthless. They were for $25 and $15.10, respectively and were made payable to himself with the name of C. M. Small forged. These have been made good.

Following Cave's first series of auto thefts here a few weeks ago, his mother petitioned the Juvenile Court at Ukiah to have him committed to a school of correction, as she was unable to manage him. In all probability her request will be granted.

HOPLAND

HOPLAND, Jan. 21.—Mrs. S. E. Brooks returned home this week after having spent a week in the bay cities visiting relatives.

The Misses Edith Allenbest and Ida Doty were Santa Rosa visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Van Harpe is ill at her home with a sprained hip. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

Ed. Vassar was up from Pieta Tuesday.

Chas. Yance and wife are visiting friends in Berkeley the past week.

Lew Banks was a Ukiah visitor Thursday.

Last Friday Mrs. Van Harpe gave a shower in honor of Mrs. Ray Miller, the young bride. She received many beautiful and useful presents. Refreshments were served during the afternoon, and when the good byes were said all voted Mrs. Harpe an ideal hostess.

Mrs. Fred Allenbest and daughter, May, were Ukiah visitors Wednesday.

Chas. E. Leek was a passenger on the Eureka Express Thursday for Oakland.

Supervisor E. L. Williams was a Boonville visitor last week.

MRS. ELMER NORGARD TRAPS BIG COYOTE

Mrs. Elmer Norgard came to town last Monday morning with a big coyote which she had trapped the day before. The animal was still alive when she brought it to town and had to be dispatched on her arrival here.

The bounty of eight dollars will be very acceptable as pin money for the young woman.

WENDLING COUPLE WED

Amsley Skinner and Miss Velda Tunnell, two well known young people of Wendling, were quietly married Thursday evening of last week at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. W. W. Sutherland performed the ceremony.

E. A. Spotswood, one of Potter Valley's progressive ranchers, was a county seat visitor on business yesterday.
